

An official website registration memo for the foreign citizen competition to study in Russia

Step 1. Register on <http://russia.study> and choose the educational program of Nosov Magnitogorsk State Technical University in the "Search for educational programs" section.

Step 2. Fill in the questionnaire and the university application form in your personal account.

Click the "Edit" button and fill in all fields in the questionnaire. Please, don't forget to load your photo, your passport copy and your certificate of graduation. Please, leave your phone number for the staff to contact you. Edit your application, specifying the form and level of education which you want to get in Russia.

Teaching in the University is in Russian. If your Russian is not good enough to study at the university, you can enroll for the course of the Russian Language in the preparatory faculty (It is necessary to specify point 27 in the application for this).

Step 3. Send in your application and wait for a response from the representatives of the Ministry of Science and Higher Education.

Step 4. Participate in the competitive selection

You have to take part in the competitive selection in your country to get a quota (scholarship) to study in Russia for free. To do this, please, click "Submit application" and contact The Russian center of science and culture or the Russian Embassy in your country to learn the terms and conditions of selection. You will be included in the list of competitive selection participants and will be informed about the nearest selection procedure.

Step 5. Get a student visa and come to Russia!

Most foreign students need a foreign passport and a study visa to study in Russia.

A study visa is issued at the Embassy (consular section) or Consulate of Russia.

But at first you need an invitation for visa. If you pay for your education, the University will make an official invitation and e-mail its copy to your for the Embassy. If you got a quota (scholarship) to study in Russia, the Ministry of Science and Higher Education of Russia will make an official invitation and send it to the Embassy. You can check the statues of your invitation on : russia-edu.ru.

After receiving an invitation or seeing on the russia-edu.ru that it has been delivered to your country, you should collect the necessary documents and contact the Embassy (consular Department) of Russia.
